How to use the posts

30 ideas with their captions, in 5 types. If you post 3 times a week, that's 10 weeks covered.

- 1 Choose one of each type per week (process, result, educational, sales, personal).
- 2 Take the photo or video as described in “What you show”.
- 3 Copy the caption and change whatever is in curly brackets.
- 4 Always finish with an invitation: “message me”, “which one do you like?”.

Client photos

Only post photos of clients with their permission. Photos of garments on a mannequin or on your work table don't need anyone's permission.

PART 1

Process (let them see the work)

WHAT YOU SHOW	CAPTION (COPY AND ADAPT)
1. Video of the cutting	This is how a corset begins: the pattern on the fabric and a lot of patience ✂️ Every piece is cut to the measurements of the person who'll wear it.
2. Photo of the toile	Before cutting the good fabric, I make a toile and we try it on. That's why a made-to-measure corset fits like no other.
3. Boning	Did you know this corset has {N} bones? Each one sits in its own channel, sewn by hand. That's what gives it its shape.
4. Work table	An ordinary Tuesday in the studio: patterns, pins and a corset that will soon have an owner 🦋
5. Inside detail	What you don't see matters too: this is the inside of a well-finished corset.
6. Timelapse	From cut pieces to an assembled corset in {N} seconds (in real life it took {hours} hours 😊).

PART 2

Result (let them picture wearing it)

7. Finished garment on a mannequin	Finished. {color} satin, steel boning and hand-sewn binding. For a bride getting married in {month} 📅
8. Front and back	Front and back. Which do you prefer? 📌
9. Set	Corset + matching briefs: the set I'm asked for most this season.
10. With jeans	Who said a corset is only for special occasions? With jeans and a blazer, it looks incredible.
11. Client wearing it (with permission)	Her and her made-to-measure corset for her party. Thank you for choosing me! (photo shared with her permission)
12. Colors of the season	The colors I have this season. Which one would you choose for yours?

PART 3

Educational (build trust)

WHAT YOU SHOW	CAPTION (COPY AND ADAPT)
13. Corset vs. shapewear	A corset and shapewear are not the same thing. A corset has structure and is made to your measurements. Here's the difference 📌
14. How to take measurements	If you're ordering a made-to-measure piece, these are the measurements I'll ask you for (and why).
15. Fabrics	Satin, brocade, cotton: which fabric to choose depending on how you'll wear your corset.
16. Care	Your corset can last for years if you look after it like this: 3 tips.
17. Myths	"Corsets are uncomfortable." A well-made, made-to-measure one isn't. Here's why.
18. Why it costs what it costs	What's behind a made-to-measure corset: measurements, toile, fittings, boning, finishing. It's not just the fabric.

PART 4

Direct sales (get them to message you)

21. Last spot	I have just one spot left this month. Could it be yours?
22. Featured style	The {style}, made to measure, is {price}. It includes measurements, a toile and {N} fittings. Message me to book.
23. Answer to a frequent question	I'm often asked if I do larger sizes: I make every piece to your measurements, so it fits you. Message me.
24. Sample available	I have this sample available in {measurements}, ready to go. If it's your size, it's yours.

PART 5

Personal (let them get to know you)

26. Why corsetry	I fell in love with corsetry because of {reason}. Today every piece I make carries a little of that.
27. A mistake that taught you	The first corset I made turned out {how}. I learned that you never skip the toile.
28. Your studio	This is the corner where every piece is born. Want to see more?
29. Thank you	Thank you to every client who trusted me this month. Every piece was a beautiful challenge ❤️
30. Behind the scenes	What you don't see: the late nights sewing, the fitting that went wrong and the one that went perfectly. That's what this is like.
