How to get in touch without being pushy

40 messages to reach out to each client again. Swap whatever is in curly brackets for her details.

Rules so you're never pushy

- ☐ One message per occasion, no more.
- ☐ Always with something useful: news, a care tip, a gift.
- ☐ If she doesn't reply twice in a row, wait until next season.
- ☐ If she asks you not to message her, note it on her profile and don't message her again.
- ☐ Only ask happy clients for photos and reviews, and only post them with their permission.
